GRANTS AWARDED

- For research on the determinants of Markov-regime switching in the natural gas and crude oil cointegrating relationship.
- For research into the determinants of asymmetric volatility in crude oil (WTI) futures.
- To reconstruct the portfolio theory course using R code to allow fast theory and strategy testing.

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT

- BS Finance, SUNY Polytechnic Institute.
- MS Data Analytics, SUNY Polytechnic Institute.
- Python in Finance, Milken Institute.
- MBA/Finance, Clarion University
 - Full responsibility for curriculum development.
 - Program has been approved at all university levels, and plans to admit students in 2015.
 - Program may be completed fully online.
- Master in Data Analytics, Clarion University
 - Coordinated the curriculum development.
 - Program approved July 2015.
 - Program may be completed fully online.

TEACHING RELATED PROJECTS

- Created a MySQL database relating hourly PJM electricity prices and FTR auction values by network node.
- Created a PostgreSQL database of all Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac loan-level files.
- Created an operating system for students to run as a live CD. This enables students to have all programs they need for my courses (and quantitative finance in general) available on any computer anywhere.
- Supervised student research papers.

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

Huntington Bank

10/2022–present

Advisor, Treasury Analytics and Modeling

- Implemented methods (based on Nelson-Siegel) to predict the term structure of interest rates.
- Updated short-rate models for derivative valuation.

Milken Institute, Center for Financial Markets

10/2014–7/2021

Financial Education Advisor

- Securitized equity stakes in various pharmaceutical patents to increase funding available in phase 1 trials.
- Created a web application which modeled the decision to purchase a house, as well as other finance related web applications.
- Created interactive presentations in R/Shiny for 5MinuteFinance.org.

NextEra Energy, NextEra Energy Resources, Juno Beach, FL

2/2009–7/2009

Business Management Analyst/Consultant

- Calculated the real option value of natural gas fired generation assets to assist electricity forward sale decisions and set asset optimization budgets. The pricing was done by applying Monte Carlo to a spread option where the two underlyings were mean-reverting stochastic processes with price proportional volatility.
- Determined profitability drivers of wind farms.
 - Software used: SAP ERP Financials, Oracle databases, R, Excel, Access, some SQL query writing.

Florida Atlantic University, Boca Raton, FL

1/2006–5/2009

Finance Instructor & Research Assistant

- Modeled time series and volatility (including ARCH/GARCH models with endogenous regime-switching and a GJR leverage effect), and implemented conditional autoregressive Value-at-Risk .
- Priced options with Stochastic Volatility models (including Heston calibration).

World Omni Financial Corp. (Southeast Toyota Finance), Deerfield Beach, FL

12/2004–1/2006

Senior Modeling Analyst

- Created a nested Logit model to estimate delinquency and default probabilities for multi-billion dollar portfolios of auto loans and leases.
- Priced the option sold in our auto leases.
 - Software used: SAS, Excel, Access, SQL query writing.

OTHER TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Finance Instructor, College of Business (AACSB Accredited), Florida Atlantic University.

- Principles of Financial Management, Spring 2008, Fall 2008, Spring 2009.
